

We are Jordan and Jocelyn, sisters and founders of the This Girl Walks Into a Bar brand — a premium, organic cocktail mixer company for cocktail and mocktail fans who want to create and enjoy homemade-tasting, bar-quality drinks at home.

Born from our bartending company (This Girl Walks Into A Bar: Bartending), our mixers were tested on a large customer base across Southern CA & four states. Sadly, it's headquarters (and Jordan's home) perished in the Palisades fire this January and we closed that business. Fortunately our mixers were safe and sound at our warehouse and serve as our silver lining!
